

2013 Wood Badge Sponsorship Request Form

Wood Badge training is an advanced leadership course for Adult Leaders of Cub Scout, Boy Scout, Varsity, and Venturing units. Wood Badge is a commitment – a commitment to lifelong learning, a commitment made by a candidate, toward service to Scouting and its ideals, and to one's self. Every Scouter accepted for a Wood Badge course subscribes to this commitment both in words and deeds.

Sponsorship Agreement

I _____ (Participant) would like to request a sponsorship in the amount of $ _____ to help pay toward the cost of attending the Wood Badge course. In exchange I commit to attend all sessions, complete all requirements to earn the Wood Badge beads, and to apply the concepts learned to strengthen my Scout Unit and provide a quality program for the youth. In the unlikely event that I do not complete the course and earn the Wood Badge beads, regardless of the circumstances, I hereby agree to return the entire amount of the sponsorship to the sponsor within 30 days of not completing the Wood Badge requirements, and hereby authorize the Course Director to notify the sponsor regarding the non-completion. (Participants have 18 months after the course to complete all requirements.)

Instructions: After an agreement is reached, and this form is signed by both parties,

Sponsor: Send funds either directly to the Participant (preferred if airfare or other assistance is included), or payable to Aloha Council with a copy of this form to 42 Puiwa Road, Honolulu, HI 96817
If a non-completion notice is desired (for repayment purposes), Council must receive this form.

Participant: Complete the Wood Badge Application form and submit it along with your portion of payment (if any) to Aloha Council. Ensure to mark the box "Additional Payment to be provided by Sponsor".
Follow-up with the Sponsor to ensure remaining funds are sent to Aloha Council prior to July 29th.

* It is anticipated that neighbor island participants will be shuttled from the Honolulu airport.
